

Stanford EdLEADers

Professional Certificate Program

Stanford EdLEADers delivers the content and connection that system-level education leaders crave in a flexible, 100% virtual format tailored for their demanding schedules.

Designed for Education System Leaders

The Stanford EdLEADers professional certificate program is designed to address the opportunities and challenges of K-12 education system leaders nationwide and equip them to effect innovation and systemic improvement in their districts.

Key benefits identified by program applicants:

- collaboration with peer leaders nationwide
- tapping into insights, latest research, best practices from Stanford faculty
- flexibility of online learning environment
- combined Graduate Schools of Business and Education curriculum
- solutions and frameworks that are immediately applicable to real-world problems
- Stanford's reputation for quality and rigor

Course Offerings:

Stanford Graduate School of Education

- Leading for Opportunity
- Leading for Learning
- Managing Organizational Systems

Stanford Graduate School of Business

- Leading Effective Teams
- Mobilizing for Successful Change
- Getting (More of) What You Want

“The program changed my life! I have never experienced an online program this strong and well prepared; and, it is so relevant to my current job!”

Dogan Tozoglu, Executive Director | River City Science Academy

Subsidized Tuition:

The $15,000 tuition fee for the Stanford EdLEADers six-course certificate program covers all course fees, materials and access to an online learning portal. Accepted applicants to our fall 2021 cohort will be offered the subsidized tuition cost of $9,500. Our two-payment enrollment option allows tuition to be divided over two fiscal years.

Apply or Nominate on our website: edleaders.stanford.edu